DEPLOYED PORTLAND SOLDIER KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Army Specialist Brandon Tobler, 19, of Portland, Ore., was killed in a vehicle accident in the Middle East Saturday, March 24. Tobler was an automated logistics specialist in the 671st Engineer Company motorpool. Injured in the accident was Spec. Heide Dennis, 33, a bridge crewmember with the same unit. She has been upgraded from seriously injured to not seriously injured.

The 671st Engineer Company, an Army Reserve bridging unit, was recently activated to serve in Operation Enduring Freedom.
